From Fr. Tom,

What do you think heaven is like? What do you want it to be like? A lot of people answer this question with statements that have to do with seeing lost family members or friends again in a beautiful place. In other words, heaven has to do with people. This is the same scenario in today's Gospel story with the Sadducees and their questions to Jesus about who is going to be married to who in heaven. It is normal to expect humans to define eternal life in human terms, after all, what other experience do we have? We are assured by Jesus that there is a whole other realm of beauty and calm that we can't begin to imagine...

Dear Parish Family,

Thank you for your kindness last week with providing a nice retirement luncheon and gathering for Rich and I. It was greatly appreciated. I will think of you as I start a new chapter in my life.

*God Bless,
Chris Block*

Ladies Sodality News

- Ladies Sodality is once again making rolls for thanksgiving. 1 dozen dinner rolls or 1/2 dozen cinnamon rolls for $4. Orders are due by 10am-November 17th. Orders can be placed on paper form in church or you can call or text Erica @ 636.584.4297 with your name and order. Rolls will be ready for pickup after masses November 23rd & 24th. Thanks St Joseph’s Ladies Sodality

Special Thank You to Karen Wright

Karen donated her time and resources to provide St. Joseph with a beautiful display for Parish Council Members. If you haven’t seen it yet, be sure to take a peek on your way out of Church. It is hung above the media center in the vestibule.
