From Fr. Tom,

We have apocalyptic readings this week at Mass. They discuss the end of the world but without any definite timeline. Even Jesus side steps the issue about exactly when the final days will occur. When it is going to happen and how, and what happens to us has never been answered by anyone...correctly, that is. People have been predicting such "end times" events all throughout human history. So what do we do about it? Not worry, first of all! I think it was St. Francis of Assisi who answered a question while pulling weeds in his garden as to what he would do if the end of the world would come the next day, and he answered, "keep pulling weeds."
