From Fr. Tom,

The Gospel readings for the next few Sundays are excerpts from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. It is perhaps the most compact collection of moral teachings on Christian behavior. Some people call it a sacred "pep talk" from Christ Himself. It is so much more, though, because Jesus calls for a transformation of the person from the inside out making the Christian way of life attractive to anyone who sees it. We are all capable of living a holy life, inspiring others along the way. This is what God wants from us.

Thank you for your generosity!

Fish Fry – Friday, March 6th

- ☺ This year, rather than asking parishioners to donate specific items for the Fish Fry, we would like to request cash donations for items such as potatoes, green beans and macaroni. To this end, we will have a cash donation box in the vestibule. WE WILL STILL NEED ACTUAL DESSERTS, PLEASE & THANK YOU. WE WOULDN'T WANT TO START A RIOT! I came to this method for two reasons: First, the church gets a discount for groceries when bought in bulk. AND, there is no sales tax charged to the church. Second, I will have all the food in the kitchen at the start of the day so bad weather will not cause any delays in delivery by parishioners who sometimes do not deliver until they come to work at the Fish Fry (often after they get home from work).

If you have any questions or comments, please call Vi at 636.583.5659
